

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DR. Y. MONIQUE DAVIS-SMITH

Dr. Y. Monique Davis-Smith is the Program Director of the Family Medicine Residency and a Professor of Family Medicine at Medical Center Navicent Health/ Mercer University School of Medicine. Board-certified as a family physician, Dr. Davis-Smith is an experienced academic clinician who has demonstrated noteworthy accomplishments as a researcher, medical practitioner, mentor, and educational administrator. She is the wife of Dr. Jimmie H. Smith, Jr. They have three children, Gordon, Amelia, and Elizabeth.

After graduating from Southwest High School, Macon, Georgia, she attained her B.S. in Biology from Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia and her Doctor of Medicine Degree from Wayne State University School of Medicine, Detroit, Michigan. She completed her Family Medicine residency at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital, Southwest Georgia. Dr. Davis-Smith has family roots in the historic Macon neighborhood of Pleasant Hill. Macon's Congressional Medal of Honor recipient, Sgt. Rodney Maxwell Davis, is her uncle.

Dr. Davis-Smith's medical practice is at the Family Health Center where she has an active role in the educational training of the Family Medicine Resident physicians as Residency Program Director. Additionally, Dr. Davis-Smith is a committed mentor to the third-year Family Medicine Clerkship students, establishing a relationship with the students that lasts well beyond their graduation from medical school.

Dr. Davis-Smith is a member of First Baptist Church on New St. where she teaches the youth Sunday School Class and works with the Women's Ministry. Dr. Davis-Smith is an active mentor in the Bibb County Mentors Project and a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc.